Neckties - A Practical Guide to Buying, Tying, Wearing and Caring for Neckties

Do you know what sets good-dressed men apart from well-dressed men? You can probably guess just by looking at the title of this book, yet the average tie drawer only has about 8 ties in it. And with many of these ties outdated, men do not realize that their tie puts them in the back seat. But all of that can end today when you follow some simple but important advice in Mark Davids new book about neckties! This book has been created to help men use ties as an accessory to significantly upgrade their look in any formal, business, or casual environment. Learn how some clever and easy dress changes might get you your next promotion you have been hoping for - how to dress for an interview! A trendy tie can save your whole attire, and a bad tie makes even an expensive suit look like a hand-me-down. But by following practical tips, you will understand exactly which tie fits with what kind of shirt or jacket, how to choose colors, and even how to choose a tie while being in the store. This book will help you to stop buying the wrong ties once and for all! Besides learning how to dress properly, you will learn some interesting facts about designer ties as well. Where do ties come from, and why do men wear them? You will also learn how to test the quality of a tie in the store, while making sure you get the right color, too! But that is not all as Mark also reveals how you should dress for your next job interview, and in case something goes horribly wrong the night before: how to clean and take proper care of your favorite tie. If you feel it is time to upgrade your look and shop for some new trendy ties, allow Mark Davids book to be your trustworthy guide. And do not worry, he will also explain the proper ways of tying ties: 3 knots that not only look good, but also keep your tie in a good shape at the same time! Stop embarrassing yourself
