Every single day of our lives entails making decisions, consciously or subconsciously, that determine the outcome of our future. In Crossroads, Winnie Roach Oliphant shares her unforgettable moments from childhood through adulthood. These events have shaped her to become the woman she is today--content and happy. Her recollections feature both the blissful and sad times in her life. But as she reminds us, hardships only make her stronger while successes make her humble. Crossroads is a fascinating tale for readers who are inspired by individuals who overcome life's adversities by having a steadfast faith in God.
