

In Search of Mary

When we say we are searching for Mary what do we mean? It is not that we can walk over next door and say hello to her, yet she is closer to us than the person next door. We cannot pick up pen and pencil and write her a letter, yet she is always addressing us thru the Church. We cannot pick our iPhone and instant dial her to speak with her, yet she is always in dialogue with us, thru prayer and the sacraments. So, what does it mean to search for Mary? We will first look at some traditional ways that the Saints and the Church have found helpful in walking in Marys ways. Next, we will look at ways we can find Mary thru prayer and the Mysteries of Faith. Following these chapters well also look at our own personal response to Mary and how it can benefit our individual growth and devotion to her; lastly, we will take some time to look into the effect of Marys Immaculate Conception anyhow it benefits our success in finding her as the perfect person to lead us to Jesus. I hope in these reflections to bring our different ways we search for Mary as Catholics, as Christians, as followers of her Son, Jesus Christ. In one sense when we search for Mary we are searching for the truth about ourselves. Mary is the Mother of Truth and she will see us live the truth. How can we live the Truth? How can we be set free?
