

On Earth as It Is in Heaven: The Lords Prayer in 40 Languages

An ancient & powerful prayer - a universal symbol of closeness & connection. For centuries, the Lords Prayer has inspired people all over the world with its simple message of faith & devotion. Today, the prayer is recited not only at religious services but also at athletic events & at the close of twelve-step meetings. Its quality of timelessness - & its spirit of inclusion & tolerance - moved Emily Gwathney, Suzanne Slesin & Stafford Cliff to create this tribute to one of the worlds most enduring prayers. Throughout the pages of this exquisitely beautiful volume are fascinating images, both vintage & contemporary, of the worlds peoples in all their multicultural diversity. These images serve to enhance the words of the prayer, which appear in forty languages from the familiar to the exotic. Facsimiles from a beautifully detailed 1869 book provide the English translations & phonetic transliterations. Bold, colorful graphics & culturally themed patterns add to the mix inviting modern readers to discover anew the prayers abiding power. Cover painting by Norman Rockwell.
