

Tales Of A Water Bailiff

Set in glorious Devon, Bob Davisons book contains a marvellous mix of odd characters, weird happenings and wildlife insights. For twenty years the author worked as a water bailiff, and this is the account of the remarkable events he witnessed. There is the story of encounters with poachers, of fish and fishing. Above all it is the authors love of the countryside and of the vagaries of human nature which shine through and make this such an enjoyable book.
