

You Say I Got What?: One Mans Struggle To Fight MSA A Rarer Form Of Parkinsons

YOU SAY I GOT WHAT??

BY MARK BOSCHE

The information contained herein is a personal account of one mans (mine) experience and process after being diagnosed with the potentially terminal illness of Parkinsons Plus disease with Multi Systems Atrophy (MSA). I will document, within my own experience, the impact this disease has had on my relationships with all encompassed in my life, as well as the financial aspects involved to ensure that all matters are put in order for the protection of self and loved ones. Within this context, I have attempted to add a dose of grassroots wisdom, common business sense, spiritual advice, technical and legal information, as well as financial processes. While obviously very serious in content, it is designed to be an easy-flowing and somewhat light-hearted account of what one might expect to experience in a similar situation, and it is intended to aide others in avoiding some of the landmines that are lurking out there waiting to trip you up.
